

Santa Barbara News-Press · Fri, Jul 13, 2012 · Page 20 ·

C4SANTA BARBARA NEWS-PRESS

Recreation

REC SIGNUPS

BADMINTON

Page Youth Center, Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, 10 a.m. to noon, at 4540 Hollister Ave. Call 967-8778.

BASEBALL

Santa Barbara Foresters Baseball Camps, week-long session with Foresters players and coaches at Girsh Park beginning July 23. Register online at www.sbforesters.org, or write to info@sbforesters.org.

Santa Barbara Pro Baseball Camp, Powered by SKLZ, for ages 8-18 on July 17-20 at UCSB's Uyesaka Stadium. Cost: $349. Call 800-222-8152 or go to www.baseballcamps.com.

Observations

With a cornucopia of races on the horizon, the busy summer schedule is far from complete with Saturday's final Semana Nautica event — the Reg Richardson Masters Swim Meet at Los Banos Pool.

So far, it's been a great summer, thanks to the athletes who participate. While their efforts are impressive, what I found more interesting were the mini stories that pop up along the way.

Hiking on Sunday's gorgeous and hot day, I was feeling pretty strong on the trail. That is until I came across Chris Orr and the Santa Barbara Mountain Bike Trail Volunteers (sbmtv.org), who — along with U.S. Forest Service staff —

a beaut draw th in Sant SPEI While I niece A approp in Gerr George meanir of his It means And ba increas Nautica Time T as his n